Ukrainian green path from the farm to fork: step by step

Event: presentation of the Roadmap and project results

Location: offline (by invitation) / online (Zoom by link)

Time: December 23, 2021 – 2 PM (Kyiv time)

While following the turbulent developments around European Green Deal implementation and information from a numerous research results and discussions on the future of agriculture and food systems, we gradually work out a number of ideas on possible directions and available opportunities for agricultural green transition in Ukraine.

The ideas, that would take quite some time and resources to implement. The opportunities, which should not be missed. The most viable of the world's endeavors on food systems green transitions that we can follow right now. These constitute the developed Roadmap.

We invite you to participate in the discussion on our findings and potential opportunities to determine which ones we can't afford to miss.

- Are Ukrainian government, officials and businesses ready to take advantage of available opportunities and adopt new ideas?
- Which difficulties can be avoided by those who have already set direction for the green path - the perspective of the EU's experience?
- How to proceed on the way - the synergy of multi-stakeholder actions.

The discussion will include representatives of Ukrainian government agencies, industry and international experts and the interested stakeholders.

We would like to thank to the many participants of our previous events and discussions and invite you to the presentation of the Roadmap on December 23!

Advanced registration is not required!

Simultaneous translation into Ukrainian and English will be provided during the event.
